Please note, the above increases do not apply to all products within the categories and only highlight the most relevant price increases.

Why we're raising our prices. The price increase on items such as Steel Lintels, Concrete Lintels and Insulation comes from the increase in costs for the raw materials used to make them. For example, the price of nickel has increased 45% since last summer alone. In addition, the shortage and therefore increase in price of key chemical components in the production of PIR are increasing the manufacturing cost of insulation. There has also been an increase in demand for aggregates from public infrastructure projects (e.g. road improvements) which has driven up the price due to more demand. For other suppliers, the price rises are reflective of the ever increasing cost to them of transport as well as the need to order more product in advance due to delays in goods entering the UK via ports.
